- n. Tour Operations Chief

4. Policy

a. Per reference (a), "By direction" authority is reserved for administrative correspondence of a routine nature, e.g., general forms, letters and reports of a non-policy, non-controversial nature, limited to the signer's area of responsibility.

b. "By direction" authority is not granted for the obligation of funds or expenditures.

5. Action

a. A "By direction" signature block will begin with the signer's first and middle initials followed by last name in uppercase.

b. For official correspondence to military addresses, the second line of the signature block will state "By direction."

c. For correspondence to non-military addresses, the second and third lines will consist of the signer's military rank followed by "U.S. Navy," and the title listed in paragraph 2. The last two lines will state "By direction of the Commanding Officer/Leader."

d. Examples

(1) Military:

J. J. DOE
By direction

(2) Civilian:

J. J. DOE
Master Chief Musician, U.S. Navy
Command Master Chief
By direction of the Commanding Officer/Leader

e. Copies of all "By direction" correspondence will be forwarded to Admin for routing to the Commanding Officer. Each signer is responsible for maintaining archive copies of all "By direction" correspondence under their purview, in accordance with reference (a).

8. Records Management. Records created as a result of this instruction, regardless of media and format, must be managed per SECNAV Manual 5210.1 of January 2012.

9. Review and Effective Date. Per OPNAVINST 5215.17A, United States Navy Band will review this instruction annually on the anniversary of its issuance date to ensure applicability, currency, and consistency with Federal, DoD, SECNAV, and Navy policy and statutory authority
