Subj: Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) Based on Dependent Location for Assignment to Limited Duty (LIMDU) (ACC-105)

Ref: (a) Joint Travel Regulations

Based on a review of the conditions of a Permanent Change of Station assignment to LIMDU, I have designated "assignment/orders to LIMDU " a condition for which BAH based on dependent location may be authorized, per reference (a). BAH based on dependent location may be paid for members who executed a designated place during the member's previous assignment. This applies provided the dependents continue to reside at the designated place during the LIMDU assignment and the LIMDU assignment does not exceed a total combined period of 12 months unless a waiver has been granted for those LIMDU assignments beyond 12 months.

MEMORANDUM FOR CHIEF OF NAVAL PERSONNEL

SUBJECT: Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) Based on Dependent Location for Pre-Commissioning Unit (PCU) Sailors

Ref: (a) Joint Federal Travel Regulations (JFTR), Volume 1

Based on a review of the conditions of assignment to vessels under construction, I have designated "assignment/orders to vessels under construction" a condition for which BAH based on dependent location may be authorized, per reference (a). BAH based on dependent location may be paid for members who leave dependents in the vicinity of the old permanent duty station or at a designated place authorized during the member's previous assignment, provided that the dependents are not relocated during the PCU assignment.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Juan M. Garcia", is written over the typed name and title.

Subj: Revised Travel and Transportation Policy - Dependent
Designated Place of Residency Approval Authority

Ref: (a) Joint Federal Travel Regulations, Volume 1

1. Dependent Designated Place of Residency approvals are authorized by law to allow service members to designate an alternate place of residency for their dependents while assigned to unaccompanied and Unusually Arduous Sea Duty (UASD) billets. Official regulations outlining Designated Place move policy can be found in JFTR U5222.

2. OPNAV N130 is currently the approval authority for all Designated Place requests. Per reference (a), there is no requirement for N130 to act as the approval authority for Designated Place letters within CONUS. A recent review has determined that the value of N130 approval of these packages is outweighed by the administrative burden placed on commands and OPNAV staff, resulting in delayed approval letters for Sailors. Therefore, the authority to approve Dependent Designated Place of Residency moves within CONUS, in accordance with the JFTR, resides with Commanding Officers.

3. In order to be eligible for a Dependent Designated Place move, the member must be assigned to:

- (a) Unusually Arduous Sea Duty (eligible commands can be found in OPNAVINST 4650.17), or
- (b) An unaccompanied tour OCONUS (CONUS = continental 48 states, OCONUS = outside of continental 48 states).

OPNAV N130 still remains the approving authority for ALL Designated Place requests to OCONUS non-foreign and foreign locations. Note: OCONUS foreign location requests will only be approved if the member's spouse was born in the requested location. Approval of non-foreign OCONUS designated place locations (i.e. HI, AK, PR, VI, GU, Samoa) will only be approved for locations to which family ties (such as a HOR, PLEAD, or home ownership) exist.

4. Point of contact in this matter is LT Grant Schweikert, N130C4 at (703) 614-5635 or email grant.schweikert@navy.mil.

MEMORANDUM

17 Sep 24

From: Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Personnel, Manpower, and Training, N1
To: Branch Head, Military Pay and Compensation Branch (OPNAV N130)

Subj: BASIC ALLOWANCE FOR HOUSING FLEXIBILITY FOR MEMBERS

Ref: (a) Financial Management Regulations
(b) DASN (MMP) memo dated 18 Jun 24
(c) DASN (MMP) memo dated 5 Aug 21
(d) DASN (MMP) memo dated 6 Apr 20
(e) DCNO (N1) memo dated 8 Oct 21
(f) DCNO (N1) memo dated 13 Apr 20

1. In line with references (a) and (b), due to the family disruption caused by a Permanent Change of Station, Service Members who choose to reside separately from their dependents are authorized to receive Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) for the dependent's location. In order to qualify for BAH at dependent location, the dependent(s) must be in the Continental United States (CONUS), Alaska or Hawaii, and located in the vicinity of the previous duty station or previously approved dependent location and the dependents must not have moved from that location. There are no exceptions to these requirements.

2. BAH will be paid based on dependent location only when the dependents are residing in the vicinity of the previous duty station or previously approved dependent location. A housing allowance based on dependent location will not be paid under this authority for any location outside of CONUS, Alaska or Hawaii. Entitlement to BAH based on dependent location will cease if the dependents move from the vicinity of the approved location. Any overpayments will be recouped.

3. Service Members with orders detaching from an accompanied tour in a foreign location or non-foreign United States territory are not authorized to receive BAH for dependent location under this authority.

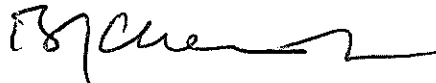

4. Service Members are only authorized to receive a single housing allowance under this authority. If receiving a housing allowance for their dependent's location, the member will not receive a housing allowance for their Permanent Duty Station (PDS). Additionally, members approved under this authority are only authorized to occupy unaccompanied government quarters on a space available basis.

5. The member must be aware of the financial implications of maintaining a residence at their PDS and at their dependent's location. Members are encouraged to discuss their situation with their command financial specialist prior to electing to become a geographical bachelor.

6. Family Separation Allowance may be authorized if requirements in reference (a) are met.

Subj: BASIC ALLOWANCE FOR HOUSING FLEXIBILITY FOR MEMBERS

7. All requests made under this memo will be submitted to Commander, Navy Personnel Command (PERS-451). Requests must contain approval from the member's current Commanding Officer and a statement that the member understands the potential financial implications of electing to receive BAH based on dependent location. Branch Head, Military Pay and Compensation Branch (OPNAV N130) will serve as the ultimate authority for appeals.
8. This program is effective 1 October 2024. Members whose dependents currently reside separately from the Service Member and meet the criteria of this memo may request to receive BAH based on dependent location, however the start date for any BAH at dependent location will not be earlier than 1 October 2024.
9. Reference (b) expands and replaces the authority in and cancels references (c) and (d). Thereby, references (e) and (f) are cancelled.

Basic Needs Allowance (BNA) - Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is BNA?

A: The BNA is a monthly allowance for active duty Sailors with dependents whose gross household income from the previous calendar year falls below 200% of the federal poverty guidelines for their household size and duty station location for same year.

Q: What change occurred on 1 July 2023 that affected BNA?

A: DoDI 1341.15 Change 1 became effective on 1 July 2023. The federal poverty guidelines threshold was raised to 150% from 130% under previous policy to be in accordance with law changes brought forth by the 2023 National Defense Authorization Act.

Q: What change occurred on 3 May 2024 that affected BNA?

A: DoDI 1341.15 Change 2 became effective on 3 May 2024. A change to the definition of gross household income (GHI) to exclude the amount of any Federal Government food assistance program reflects the alignment of this issuance with Section 2017 of Title 7, U.S.C.

Q: What change occurred on 12 May 2025 that affected BNA?

A: DoDI 1341.15 Change 3 became effective on 12 May 2025. The federal poverty guidelines threshold was raised to 200% from 150% under previous policy to be in accordance with law changes brought forth by the 2023 National Defense Authorization Act.

Q: How is BNA prorated with Change 3 being effective 12 May 2025?

A: If a Service member is certified for BNA for less than a full month, the BNA must be prorated based on the number of days of the certified applicant's eligibility for the allowance during the month. Proration must be computed at the rate of 1/30th of the monthly BNA amount for each day of certification during the month.

Q: How do I know if I qualify for BNA?

A: All Sailors will be screened monthly by NPPSC to determine potential eligibility. If found to be potentially eligible, Sailors will be notified by their chain of command and may apply for BNA. Final determination of eligibility is made by NPPSC.

Q: Where can I find an application?

A: An application Template can be found here:

https://www.mynavyhr.navy.mil/Portals/55/Reference/PayandBenefits/N130/BNA_Application_Cover_Sheet_3JULY2023.pdf?ver=uxxdcQqebhXn6HKzRcT4Dg%3d%3d However, as long as the application contains all the information outlined in the application template, there is no official form.

Q: Why can't I receive BNA until I am complete with initial entry training (IET)?

A: DoDI 1341.15 specifies that Service members must complete IET to be eligible for BNA. IET is complete upon arrival at your first Permanent Duty Station (PDS) after you depart your final training location, regardless of the scheduled duration of the training locations.

Q: Can I apply for BNA even though my command has not been informed by MNCC that I screened as potentially eligible and/or I have not been officially notified by my chain of command?

A: Yes, anyone can apply for BNA.

Q: If I am receiving BNA and gain a dependent, how do I ensure my BNA payment considers my new household size?

A: Sailors are responsible for ensuring that DEERS is up to date as well as their record of emergency data and dependency application (RED/DA) in NSIPS. If a dependent is not listed in DEERS, the dependent is not considered a dependent for purposes of BNA. Once DEERS and RED/DA are updated for changes in dependents, Sailors are responsible for applying for re-certification for BNA.

Q: If I am certified as eligible for BNA, when do I get paid?

A: Sailors who are certified by NPPSC will be paid monthly. The start period for payments is the date of certification by NPPSC.

Q: Why is my BNA payment considered taxable income?

A: Office of the Secretary of Defense determined BNA is taxable income in line with statute (26 U.S.C. 61).

Q: What types of income are excluded when calculating gross household income?

A: The glossary of Department of Defense Instruction 1341.15 – Basic Needs Allowance, defines gross household income (GHI) and specifies all the exceptions that are not included in GHI.

Q: If I am certified for BNA and my spouse experiences loss of employment, why does my BNA payment not increase?

A: BNA payments are calculated based on current year Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG) and the member's previous year GHI. A decrease in current income won't increase current BNA payment amount.

Q: NPPSC has not sent the BNA eligibility list for my command. Where can I find the list for my command?

A: NPPSC completes monthly screenings and all potentially eligible Sailors and TRIADs are notified via email. Sailors who believe they are potentially eligible, per para 7 of the NAVADMIN, will be notified by the command via page 13. Sailors may submit an application whether or not they were screened by NPPSC. Please review the BNA section of our website that provides the application template and additional information.

Q: Where can I go to find references, templates and other BNA resources?
